So, Tom could stay in the garden as long as he liked and time would stand still for his family as long as he didn't return to the house.

The clock in the kitchen had gazed at him intently and Tom returned the gaze.

He immediately checked the secret hiding place and saw the paper packages under the floorboards.

Back at home, Peter was upset and lying awake because he hadn't received a letter from Tom that day.

He prepared the skates and tried them on.
